About

Kelly-Anne is an independent country artist from the south-west UK, blending honest and vulnerable story-telling, with fun-loving country vibes. From performing in Nashville Tennesse to The Isle of Wight Festival 2026, Kelly-Anne has exploded onto the country music scene with fierce attitude, championing female empowerment whilst holding onto her Rowdy, Tomboy heart.

In the short space of 18 months, Kelly-Anne has played the UKs second largest festival, become a regular at one of the UKs biggest Honky Tonks and released her debut single Kiee You (When I'm Drunk).

Working with Joseph Lawrence (X, Factor), Kelly is exctied to continue recording her debut EP, telling stories of a mis-spent youth, and a complicated adulthood

Press Quotes

Kelly played our second biggest stage at Lakefest and we absolutely love her. Her professional approach to her craft was equally matched by her incredible performance.

Thank you for being part of Lakefest 2026

Adam Bertrand, Lakefest booking team

Kelly-Anne delivered a fantastic country set at Lakefest, effortlessly blending much loved classics with her fresh new material. Her performance was full of warmth, personality and great energy and her new single 'Kiss You (when I'm drunk) was a real highlight.
